RULES OF THE ILLINOIS STATE LIBRARY.

The Library will be open during the business hours observed in the public offices in the State House. During the session of the General Assembly, the Library will also be open in the evening from 7:30 to 9:30.

Books may be taken from the State Library by the members of the General Assembly and its officers, during the session of the Legislature, and at any time by the Governor and the officers of the Executive Department of this State who are required to keep their offices at the seat of government, and the Justices of the Supreme and Appellate Courts.

No person shall be allowed to take any books or property from the Library without executing a receipt therefor, nor to take or detain from the Library more than two volumes of miscellaneous works at any one time.

Works of reference are not to be taken out of the Library.

No miscellaneous work shall be detained more than two weeks. All Laws, Journals, etc., taken by members of the Legislature shall be returned at the close of the session.

If any person injures or fails to return any book taken from the Library within the time above mentioned, HE SHALL FORFEIT AND PAY TO THE LIBRARIAN, for the benefit of the Library, THREE TIMES THE VALUE THEREOF, or of the set to which it belongs.

Any person not above mentioned who takes books or other articles from the State Library without the consent of the Librarian, will be prosecuted for larceny.

Any person taking books from the State Library without reporting the same to the Librarian or Assistant, and causing the same to be properly charged upon the register, will be prosecuted to the extent of the law.

No entry of charge or return of books will be permitted to be made except by the Librarian or Assistant.

Persons using books of the Library will return the same to the Librarian or Assistant.

JAMES A. ROSE,

Secretary of State and ex-officio State Librarian.

American Colonial Tracts. 1897-98.

Contents: v. 1. Discourse concerning the designed establishment of a new colony to the south of Carolina, in the most delightful country of the universe, by (Sir) Robert Mountgomery, Bart. London: Printed in the year 1717.

v. 2. Brief account of the establishment of the colony of Georgia under General James Oglethorpe, Feb. 1, 1733.

v. 3. State of the province of Georgia, attested upon oath, in the court of Savannah, November 10, 1740. London: Printed for W. Meadows, at the Angel in Cornhill, MDCCXLII.

v. 4. True and historical narrative of the colony of Georgia, in America, from the first settlement thereof until this period; containing the most authentic facts, matters, and transactions therein; together with his Majesty's charter, representations of the people, letters, etc.; and a dedication to his Excellency General Oglethorpe, by Pat Tailfer, M. D., Hugh Anderson, M. D., Dr. Douglas, and others, landholders in Georgia, at present in Charlestown, in South Carolina. Charlestown, South Carolina: Printed by P. Timothy, for the authors, 1741.

v. 5. Account showing the progress of the colony of Georgia, in America, from its first establishment. Published per order of the Honorable the Trustees. London: Printed in the year MDCCXLI. Maryland: Printed and sold by Jones Green, at his printing office, in Annapolis, 1742.

v. 6. Nova Britannia: offering most excellent fruits by planting in Virginia; exciting all such as be well affected to further the same. London: Printed for Samuel Macham, and are to be sold at his shop in Paul's church-yard, at the sign of the Bul-head, 1609.

v. 7. New life of Virginia; declaring the former success and present estate of that plantation, being the second part of Nova Britannia. Published by authority of his Majesty's Council of Virginia. London: Imprinted by Felix Kyngston, for William Welby, dwelling at the sign of the Swan, in Paul's Church-yard, 1612.

v. 8. Beginning, progress, and conclusion of Bacon's rebellion in Virginia, in the years 1675 and 1676.

v. 9. Account of our late troubles in Virginia, written in 1676, by Mrs. An. Cotton of Q. Creek. Published from the original manuscript, in the Richmond (Va.) Enquirer, of 12 September, 1804.

List of those that have been executed for the late rebellion in Virginia, by Sir William Berkeley, Governor of the colony. Copied from the original manuscript (Harleian collection, codex 6845, page 54) in the library of the British Museum, London, by Robert Greenhow, Esq., of Virginia.

v. 10. Narrative of the Indian and civil wars in Virginia, in the years 1675 and 1676. Published from the original manuscript, in the first volumes (second series) of the collections of the Mass. hist. soc., Boston: Printed by John Eliot, No. 5 Court street, 1814.

v. 11. New England's plantation: or, a short and true description of the commodities and dis-commodities of that country. Written by a reverend divine now there resident. London: Printed by T. C. and R. C. for Michael Sparke, dwelling at the sign of the Blue Bible in Greene Arbor in the little Old Bailey, 1630.

v. 12. Petition of W. C. exhibited to the High Court of Parliament now assembled, for the propagating of the gospel in America and the West Indies and for the settling of our plantations there; which petition is approved by seventy able English divines, also by Master Alexander Henderson and some other worthy ministers of Scotland. Printed in the year 1641.

v. 13. Description of New England; or, the observations and discoveries of Capt. John Smith (Admiral of that country) in the north of America, in the year of our Lord 1614; with the success of six ships, that went the next year, 1615; and the accidents that befel him among the French men-of-war; with the proof of the present benefit this country affords; whither this present year, 1616, eight voluntary ships are gone to make further trial. At London: Printed by Humfrey Lownes, for Robert Clerke: and are to be sold at his house, called the Lodge, in Chancery Lane over against Lincoln's Inn, 1616.

v. 14. New England's trials. Declaring the success of 80 ships employed thither within these eight years; and the benefit of that country by sea and land. With the present estate of that happy plantation, begun but by sixty weak men, in the year 1620. And how to build a fleet of good ships to make a little navy royal. Written by Captain John Smith, sometime Governor of Virginia, and Admiral of New England. The second edition. London: Printed by William Jones, 1622.

v. 15. The planter's plea, or the grounds of plantations examined and usual objections answered. Together with a manifestation of the causes moving such as have undertaken a plantation in New England. For the satisfaction of those that question the lawfulness of the action. London: Printed by William Jones, 1630.

v. 16. Governor Thomas Dudley's letter to the Countess of Lincoln, March, 1631, with explanatory notes by Dr. John Farmer.

v. 17. Extract from a manuscript collection of annals relative to Virginia. From the Virginia Gazette of April 21, 1774.

v. 18. Description of the province of New Albion. And a direction for adventurers to get two for one, and good land freely; And for gentlemen, and all servants, laborers and artificers to live plentifully. And a former description, reprinted, of the healthiest, pleasantest, and richest plantation of New Albion in North Virginia, proved by thirteen witnesses. Together with a letter from Master Evelin, that lived there many years, showing the particularities thereof. Printed in the year 1648.
